

Historical Association Gloucestershire Branch

with History at the University of Gloucestershire

Links Between the American Revolution and the French?

Professor William Doyle, Professor Emeritus of History and Senior Research Fellow, University of Bristol

How The United States achieved its independence with French help, and a French revolution followed the American one within a few years. The links and parallels between these two great upheavals were, however, not as obvious or sympathetic as they have sometimes seemed. This talk explores what can, and can't, be said about them.

Rochambeau, Washington and Lafayette at Yorktown, 1781

Monday 20 April 2026, 7.30 pm

University of Gloucestershire, Park Campus, Cheltenham GL50 2RH and on Zoom

see www.haglos.co.uk to register, or use QR code

Find us at: www.haglos.co.uk  Facebook