

Programme

Kindly sponsored by

MORNING

- 10:00 am Arrival
- 10:25 am Morning Session: Introduction and Welcome
Chair: Graham Barton, Hon Secretary for Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society
- 10:40 am Recent excavations at the Sisters Long Barrow, Baunton, Gloucestershire
Speaker: Timothy Darvill, Professor of Archaeology, Department of Archaeology and Anthropology, Bournemouth University
- 11:05 am GlosArch fieldwork on Cleeve Common 2017–2023
Speaker: Phil Cox, Secretary of GlosArch (Gloucestershire Archaeology)
- 11:30 am Break (refreshments provided)
- 11:50 am Minety: Roman tile production and community archaeology
Speaker: Neil Holbrook, Chief Executive of Cotswold Archaeology
- 12:15 pm Three hoards in one: the Wickwar coin hoard
Speaker: Kurt Adams, Finds Liaison Officer for Gloucestershire and Avon
- 12:40 pm Discussion
- 1:00 pm Lunch (not provided)

AFTERNOON

- 1.50 pm Afternoon Session: Welcome
- 1.55 pm The 5th–6th century Mosaic at Chedworth Roman Villa
Speaker: Martin Papworth, National Trust Archaeologist
- 2.20 pm From Romans to the Medieval – New archaeological sites in Gloucestershire revealed by Public Access Archaeology
Speaker: Tony Roberts, Director of Archeoscan
- 2.45 pm Break (refreshments provided)
- 3.05 pm Anarchy in the West Country: investigating archaeological evidence for Civil War and unrest in the Bristol environs
Speaker: Stuart Prior, Reader in Archaeological Practice, Department of Anthropology and Archaeology, University of Bristol
- 3.30 pm Discussion
- 3.50 pm Summary and Close

SCAN FOR TICKETS

The Committee for Archaeology is a Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society committee (originally known as the Committee for Archaeology in Gloucestershire). It was formed in 1976 to act as a liaison between all the various archaeological interests in the county, such as local groups, museums, national and local authorities and individuals. The committee organises a yearly symposium that highlights recent archaeological work.

Event tickets: <https://tinyurl.com/BGASsymposium>