

Lieutenant EDWARD HENRY MORRIS

273464, 5 Field Coy., Royal Engineers

who died age 22 on 9 April 1946

Son of Brigadier David Morris, O.B.E., and Anna K. F. Morris, of Twyning, Gloucestershire.

Remembered with honour at YOKOHAMA WAR CEMETERY

The report in the Register of 27 April 1946 concerning the death of Lt. Morris reminds us that accidents also took the lives of service personal after the war was supposedly over.

DEATH OF TWYNING OFFICER IN JAPAN.

It is with regret we record that Brigadier and Mrs David Morris, of Churchend Twyning, have received the news that their only son Lieut. Edward Henry Morris, R E has been killed in an accident while on service with the B C O F. in Japan. This happened on the 9th of April. Lieut. Morris who was twenty-two years of age, and much sympathy will be extended to his parents in their loss.

