

The Friends of Tewkesbury Abbey

Invite you to join us on a half-day coach trip to The Firs, birthplace of Sir Edward Elgar

Date:
24th February

Where:
Departing
The Crescent,
Tewkesbury

Times:
Leave 9:30 -
Return 13:30

Cost:
£18

Immerse yourself in the surroundings and music of Edward Elgar as Dr Roger Allen (piano) and John Parsons (violin) perform a short live recital of Elgar's music.

The Firs, located in the picturesque countryside near Worcester, holds a special place in the heart of music enthusiasts and history buffs alike as the birthplace of Sir Edward Elgar, one of the most celebrated composers of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Managed by the National Trust, The Firs is a charming red-brick cottage that offers visitors a glimpse into the early life and inspirations of the renowned composer.

£18.00 to include coach travel from and to The Crescent, Tewkesbury, The Firs' visitor centre entry, refreshments and the private recital.

PLEASE NOTE: The Firs is run by the National Trust and an additional charge of £9.50 will be requested for those who also wish to visit the house and gardens. NT members may show their membership cards for free admission.