

Heritage Focus Day

3 June 2023 10am-4pm

Careers advice and information from representatives of:

Gloucestershire Archives; Gloucestershire Libraries;
Stroud Museum in the Park; Gloucester Cathedral
Archives; The National Trust; Cheltenham College
Archives; The John Moore Countryside Museum; freelance experts; college and apprenticeship trainers –
Cirencester College and Gloucester College; Cotswold
Archaeology; heritage volunteers for Gloucestershire
Family History Society, Gloucestershire Constabulary, Jet Age Museum, Dean Forest Railway and others; members of the Archives and Records Association

Talks of the Day

Book your place at www.heritagehub.org.uk/events

11am: Julie Reynolds – ‘Working for the National Trust – a huge variety of heritage roles’

1pm: Nick Barratt – Broadcaster, author and historian best known for BBC series ‘Who Do You Think You Are?’
‘Why Heritage Matters’

3pm: Q&A session on the joys of heritage volunteering. Panel of experts from leading local heritage associations

Exhibition and Tours

All day: Exhibition entitled ‘Treasures from the Archives’ taken from collections held by Gloucestershire Archives
12pm & 3pm: ‘Behind the scenes’ tours of Gloucestershire Archives and the Heritage Hub

Workshops & Demonstrations

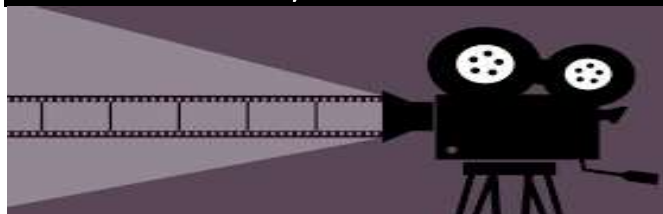

Book your place at www.heritagehub.org.uk/events

10.30am & 2.15pm: Examine my bones! – Meet ‘Cirencester Man’ and learn about heritage opportunities on offer at Cirencester College
Session leader: Matt Reynolds, Vice Principal of Cirencester College

11.30am: The art of protective packaging - Learn how to make book jackets and folders to properly care for your cherished items, with conservation advice
Session leaders: Ann Attwood and Rachel Wales, Accredited Conservators at Gloucestershire Archives

10.30 & 2:15pm: Mysteries of the Museum. Identify objects and figure out use, purpose and care
Session leaders: Alexia Clark, Museum Curator at Museum in the Park, Stroud and Kirstie Bingham, Heritage Manager at the John Moore Museum, Tewkesbury

Films of the day – booking not required

- Selection from the ‘Why Archives?’ series
- Conservation at Gloucestershire Archives
- Behind the scenes at Gloucestershire Archives
- Welcome to the Museum
- Lost in Time
- Behind the Scenes at the Museum
- Gloucestershire Libraries’ Ambitions

To book your place go to www.heritagehub.org.uk/events

Gloucestershire Heritage Hub, Clarence Row, Alvin Street, Gloucester GL1 3DW
Car parking on-site * Free refreshments * Beautiful garden for picnics * Local cafes nearby