

Gloucester & Bristol Branch
of
THE RICHARD III SOCIETY

The Golden Fleece -

The Wool and Cloth Trade in the Medieval Cotswolds

A Study Day on Saturday 28th May 2022, 10:00am
Emmanuel Church & Hall, Fairfield Parade,
Leckhampton, Cheltenham GL53 7PJ

- 09:30am: Registration and Coffee
- 10:00am: 'Cotswold Sheep and their History from Roman to Present Times'
Steve Parkes, Cotswold Sheep Society.
- 11:00am: Coffee/Tea Break
- 11:30am: 'The Medieval Wool and Cloth Trade in the Cotswolds'
Dr John Lee, Research Associate at the Centre for Medieval Studies, University of York.
- 12:30pm: Lunch
- 2:00pm: 'The Medieval Trading Market for Cotswold Wool'
Richard Martin, Graduate, Medieval and Modern History at University College London.
- 3:00pm: Afternoon Tea
- 3:30pm: 'Cotswold Wool Merchants and their Legacy in Stone, Brass and Glass'
Chris Hobson, Fairford History Society.
- 4:30pm: Close

All talks will end with a Q & A session

Tickets: £20.00 - to include refreshments but not lunch

Gloucester & Bristol Branch of The Richard III Society

All enquiries to Angela Iliff, 1 Court Road, Horfield, Bristol BS7 0BU
Telephone: 07739 559853 Email: ardiliff@gmail.com or visit our website: www.richardiiigloucester.co.uk