

EXPLORING TEWKESBURY'S PAST

Join Tewkesbury High Street Heritage
Action Zone for two talks by
JOHANNA ROETHE of HISTORIC ENGLAND

THURSDAY 29 FEBRUARY 2024
at 3pm

81-82 Barton Street (Kevin Mace Butchers), incorporating an unusual medieval open hall, and 10 Church Street (Jennings Carpets), an intriguing late medieval building, have both been recently investigated and tree-ring dated. Find out more about the fascinating findings in this talk.

© Historic England Archive

THURSDAY 7 MARCH 2024
at 3pm

From private house to Nonconformist Academy and the childhood home of John Moore, the story of the Tudor House Hotel is rich in history and shrouded in anecdote. Find out more about the true story of the building.

© Historic England Archive

WHERE: at the Tudor House Hotel, Court Room

FREE EVENT including tea, coffee and cake

BOOKING REQUIRED: Spaces are limited. You can book at The Roses Theatre Box Office, Sun Street, Tewkesbury, or online at WWW.ROSESTHEATRE.ORG search for Exploring Tewkesbury's Past

