

Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society
Committee for Archaeology in Gloucestershire

Annual Symposium 2019
Fifty years of Crickley Hill and recent archaeological discoveries in Gloucestershire

A conference on Saturday 16th March 2019

The Guildhall, Gloucester

10am to 5pm

Cost £15 each

Steve Ford (Thames Valley Archaeological Services), Dryleaze Farm and other recent work in the Upper Thames Valley.

Alex Thomson (Cotswold Archaeology), A medieval manorial complex and Roman occupation at Lydney.

Paolo Guarino (Cotswold Archaeology), Iron Age settlement at Bretton House, Stow-on-the-Wold.

Professor Philip Dixon, Fifty Years at Crickley Hill.

David Lambie (A Forgotten Landscape) The Toot, Oldbury-on-Severn.

Robin Jackson (Worcestershire County Council), The Foresters Forest project: Soudley Camp, Ruardean Castle and Lidar verification in the woods.

Penny Coombe and Martin Henig (University of Oxford) Diana's hound and other bronzes: sweepings from a Roman temple in Gloucestershire.

Kurt Adams (Gloucestershire and Avon FLO) and Tony Roberts (Archeoscan), A new Roman settlement at Slimbridge.

Coffee and tea will be provided and there are lunch facilities available in Gloucester

Booking slip

To: CAG Secretary, c/o Toby Catchpole, Archaeology Service, Shire Hall, Gloucester GL1 2TH
toby.catchpole@gloucestershire.gov.uk

I wish to order.....ticket(s) for the conference on 16th March 2019 at £15.00 each.

I enclose a cheque payable to 'CAG' for £.....

Name.....

Address.....

Post Code.....Tel No (in case of queries).....

Email address.....or a self addressed envelope would be appreciated