

Gloucestershire Building Recording Group 2026 visits/events:

Please RSVP for all visits via e-mail to Diane Charlesworth (GBRG Events Secretary) at: dianec88@gmail.com. It is always useful to bring a pen, paper, torch and camera on building visits. If you live in or know of any buildings of interest that the group might be able to record do let us know.

12th April (Sun at 11am) Recording visit.
Farnworth Cottage, Clanna Rd, Alvington,
GL15 6BA. By kind invitation of the owners
Joseph and Françoise Monkhouse.

14th July (Tue at 5pm) Sudeley Castle Lecture.
Winchcombe, Gloucestershire, GL54 5JD, Visitor's Entrance:

what3words /// driftwood.wanting.amber

A lecture in the Coach House by Derek Maddock (Castle Archivist), David Aldred (local author) and Andy Moir on the results of the recent tree-ring dating project on the Castle. The lecture is exclusive to guides, volunteers and GBRG members. No limit on numbers, but please RSVP in advance.

26th August (11am) 371 Badminton Road, Nibley, Bristol BS37 5JF
By kind invitation of Jenny Williams

A previously tree-ring dated open hall building of raised cruck construction. The mission is to complete a tick-box summary sheet for this building and photograph the timber-framed features of interest. Number of members limited to six, but please RSVP in advance. The house has room to park 3/4 cars and there is a pub car park is next door.

18th September (10am) Old Manor Farmhouse, Manor Road, Wick, Bristol, BS30 5RG.

By kind invitation of Peter Gresford

Two surviving bays of a probable 4-bay open hall of arch braced raised cruck construction. The mission is to complete a tick-box summary sheet for this previously tree-ring dated building and photograph the timber-framed features of interest. Number of members is limited to six, so please RSVP in advance.

16th October (9.45am) GBRG Annual General Meeting (AGM).

The venue is The Old Baptist Chapel, 64 Church St, Tewkesbury GL20 5RZ. A Grade II* listed building situated in Church Street, Tewkesbury.

The AGM will run from 10 to 11am and will be followed by a mini workshop on building recording. The workshop will run in the Baptist Chapel from 11.15 am to 12.15pm and be followed by a tour around the nearby Merchants House. Numbers to the AGM are not limited, but please RSVP in advance. Numbers to the workshop and visit to the Merchants House are limited to 12 and will cost £10, again please RSVP in advance.

Finally a very special welcome to our new members in 2026: Helen Kirkup & Colin Walker, Jennifer Williams and Martin Robinson.