The Railways of Tewkesbury

Ever wondered where the two railway stations were in Tewkesbury? What Ashchurch Station looked like back in the day? Well, the wait is over. Ian Boskett, on behalf of the Tewkesbury Railway Society will be presenting an illustrated talk of the Railways of Tewkesbury explaining the whereabouts and demise of our stations.

Together with an exhibition of local railway memorabilia and photographs plus a few model railway displays which can be viewed from 2pm onwards with the talk to follow at 5.30pm.

The YMCA Railway Society and the Tewkesbury Baptist Church have got together to support the church for its Community Building extension (which is situated on the old goods yard) The event takes place at the church on Saturday 22nd with entry and refreshments by donation (towards building fund)
