

Unlock your old audio!

An evening with Bristol Archives' Unlocking Our Sound Heritage team

Where: Dunrossil Centre, Gloucestershire
Heritage Hub, Alvin Street, Glos, GL1 3DW

When: Just drop in on Tuesday 12th October anytime from 7pm - 9pm.

Why? For advice and chat about looking after and preserving your personal audio collections.

Bring along an old recording or two (your Grandma's musings? Your children when they were small?) and listen to those voices you haven't been able to hear in a while! Please bring your own earphones.

We'll be able to play your

- Reel to reels
- Cassettes
- CDs
- DATs
- Minidiscs

Unlocking Our Sound Heritage is a national project led by the British Library and supported by the National Lottery Heritage Fund.

