

Special opening on Friday 13th, Saturday 14th, Sunday 15th, Monday 16th September 2019 10am - 4pm/7pm

Our illustrated talks support Gloucester Heritage Open Days

| | 11 am No booking required | 2 pm No booking required |
|---------------|--|--|
| Fri 13 | Aviation Pioneers in Gloucester: 1784 – 1914 By John Hamblett, Dep. Engineering Manager | Trench Art in WWI: Talk and Exhibition By Keith Creighton, Publicity & Marketing Manager |
| Sat 14 | The Jet Age Part 1. By Tony Sangwine OBE, Trustee | Gnats over Gloucestershire By Chris Ellis, Management Team Volunteer |
| Sun 15 | Communications' talk – tbc By a Museum Volunteer | No 501 (County of Gloucester) Squadron at War – 1940 By Chris Campbell, Trustee Manager |
| Mon 16 | RFC Aerodromes & RAF Stations of Gloucestershire By Ray Bunnage, Collections & Display Volunteer | The Jindivik Pilotless Aircraft By Ozz Parfitt, Engineering Volunteer |

Talks are presented by Jet Age Museum volunteers and will last approximately 30 minutes.

Jet Age Museum admission and parking are FREE however donations to help us preserve and display Gloucestershire's rich aviation heritage are most welcome.

Gnat cockpit to sit in Hunter cockpit to sit in Trident cockpit to sit in

Vulcan cockpit to sit in Time Tunnel
Cafe Shop